

NSC BRIEFING

29 April 1954

INDOCHINA MILITARY PICTURE

I. Dien Bien Phu garrison barely hanging on.

A. "Asphyxiation" tactics of whittling it down.

1. This involves isolation
of individual subpositions;
garrisons then succumb or
withdraw.

B. French abandoned Huguette 6 on 17 April. Lost Huguette 1 on 23 April.

C. Airstrip drop zone thus con-stricted. But drops been sufficient maintain garrison.

From 11-26 April tonnage roughly equaled estimated consumption.

*As of 27 April - estimated 3-5 days
supply of all types on hand.*

NSA, DIA reviews completed

D. French regrouped most of positions east of river into two major strongpoints, Eliane Haut and Eliane Bas.

E. Enemy been most active in northwest but photos on 26 April showed trenches approaching Eliane 1 and Eliane 2. Shows possible pincer movement against these two high ground positions.

II. Navarre says fall of bastion matter of military mathematics.

A. Volunteers continue to be sent in, however.

25X1

B. These mostly Legionnaires with no jump training; about 400

arrived between 13 + 27 April

C. Daily losses exceed replacements;
French on 25 April list 900 litter
cases, 1,000 walking wounded.

D. Total men estimated 9-12,000,
including wounded.

III. Relief column from north Laos appears impractical.

A. Four battalions (mostly Laotians)
now <sup>29</sup>~~30~~ miles southwest garrison.
Have mission divert enemy
reinforcements.

B. This force must be reinforced to several times its size to relieve Dien Bien Phu.

1. Navarre says he lacks air strength <sup>to</sup><sub>^</sub> support such larger group.

IV. Viet Minh in poor shape too.

A. French estimate some units have 50% replacements.

25X1

C. Estimated <sup>present</sup> enemy strength about 36,000. Believed casualties about 13,000.

D. French think enemy can make another mass assault, maybe about 1 May.

VII. Enemy saturation Tonkin delta makes precarious situation there.

- A. Cogny feels battle for delta might be lost at Dien Bien Phu. (Released Viet Minh regulars there can be concentrated delta start of fall dry season. Probably can't hit hard in the near future.)
- B. Viet Minh already begun hitting hard at Hanoi-Haiphong communications, isolated guard posts. (69,500 enemy troops inside delta, including regulars, regionals and militia.)

25X1

C. Fall Dien Bien Phu might be signal even greater effort
against airfields and towns,
as well as road and rail networks.

D. French reserves may be unable counter such action.

E.

Viet Minh commando
preparations for raids against major air bases in various Indochina areas.

F. Also, French fear Viet Minh plans demonstrations Hanoi, other major cities on May Day, on Ho Chi Minh's birth date (19 May) or on fall Dien Bien Phu. These could be strongly anti-American.

1. Cogny refers repeated requests <sup>to</sup> Navarre to transfer troops from other areas Indochina
to delta.

"NO LONGER QUESTIONED IF DBP CAN BE TAKEN, BUT WHETHER VM WILL OVERRUN IT BY ASSAULT OR SLOWLY
STRANGLE IT.
